Chapter 1 by Nathaly Aparicio

There once was a little baby how was just born and his mom said lets call her stich and the dad said ok. Then in them mean while they mom and the dad went to the docter and they doctor said that they are going to have another baby and so stich got so exsited and she was just jumping up and down bc she aslways wanted a little brother or sister. When the doctor continued, she was less excited. Mainly because she couldn't understand a word he was saying! It was all so complicated, some medical mumbo-jumbo a child like Stitch really didn't care about when there was a whole hospital to explore! So Stitch left the side of her parents, who were intently listening to the white-coated man - why, Stitch could only guess - and began to explore.

The first door that she pushed open said "Morgue". She wasn't sure what that meant, but it sounded fun.
